

In order to engrave this unforgettable day in your heart, I offer you a customizable wedding photography service. The entry-level package includes a DVD of the photos taken during the day (about 500 photos), depending on the schedule you choose. A day can start with the preparation in the morning, include the ceremony and portraits of the newlyweds, and end with the official entry in the room in the evening, or it can be the ceremony and the dance in the evening. It can also be a whole day, from morning to evening, depending on your special requests. It is possible to add to this package one or more of the following items:

- Photo enlargements
- Photo albums
- Post cards
- Thank you cards
- Musical photomontage on DVD
- Etc.

This way, I can offer very competitive prices and customize the service to your specific needs.
